Lt. Colonel Otis B. Prichard, USAFR

Dear Colonel Prichard:

STAT I apologize for being so slow in responding to your letter of 17 March to [redacted] and I trust this has not interfered with any arrangements you are making.

Enclosed is a copy of a recent photograph of me, and an updated biographic profile.

Unfortunately, I am not going to be able to reach Green Bay in time to attend the luncheon, and will miss the Bicentennial program which you have planned.

I will arrive at the Green Bay airport via North Central Flight 295 at 1420 hours on Saturday the 24th and will be departing the following morning for Chicago.

It is my plan to speak about 30 minutes, but I certainly can fit my remarks to whatever time period is most suitable for your program.

This will be my first visit to Green Bay, and I am looking forward to the occasion.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Chief, Coordination Staff, ICS
